WetStone Partners with ForensicsGuru.com

Cortland, NY – February 18, 2021 — WetStone Technologies, the world’s leading provider of commercial steganography detection software, today announced a value-added reseller agreement with ForensicsGuru.com, an international partner dedicated to addressing the digital forensics requirements of their clients in India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka and Bhutan. The agreement encompasses the resale of WetStone’s StegoHunt™ MP, StegoCommand™, and Gargoyle Investigator™ MP products.

“We are excited to welcome ForensicsGuru.com to our partner network” said Carlton Jeffcoat, Senior Vice-President for WetStone Technologies. “ForensicsGuru.com and WetStone are natural partners, sharing a strong commitment to providing the digital investigation market with state-of-the-art computer forensics tools and cutting-edge training solutions.”

“We are excited to join hands and partner with WetStone Technologies, the award-winning cyber security division of Allen Corporation of America” said Samir Datt, Founder & CEO of ForensicsGuru.com. “WetStone has a unique set of excellent products that fill a void in the digital forensic product space. A partnership between ForensicsGuru and WetStone brings the two industry leaders in close cooperation in technology and training solutions for investigators and analysts engaged in cyber-crime investigations, digital forensics, and incident response. We look forward to advancing our cooperation in the region.”
