Allen Corporation Announces Sale of WetStone's Digital Forensics Line of Business

Fairfax, VA – October 1, 2022 - Allen Corporation of America, Inc. is pleased to announce that, effective October 1, 2022, it has reached an agreement with SiviSoft, Inc., whereby SiviSoft and its wholly-owned subsidiary, SquareML, Inc. has acquired the assets related to the digital forensics line of business from WetStone Technologies, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Allen Corporation.

“This is exciting news for WetStone Technologies customers, partners, and employees,” said Kevin C. Vaughey, CEO of Allen Corporation. “The technology leadership and global reach of SiviSoft and SquareML are a great fit to continue the evolution of the Wetstone Technologies products and research and to grow and support its world-wide user-base.”

Balaji Modhagala, CEO and Founder of SiviSoft, stated, “SiviSoft has a long and successful history of working with Allen Corporation and WetStone Technologies. We are pleased that SiviSoft was selected by Allen to carry on the outstanding legacy of the WetStone brand. Building on WetStone’s foundational malware discovery and steganalysis products, Gargoyle Investigator and StegoHunt, SiviSoft’s global team of software developers and data analytics experts will continue to improve and expand the value of some of the industry’s most important digital forensics tools”.
